PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Members of the Canadian Society of Animal Science,

I am honored to address you in anticipation of the exciting developments within our society.

I am thrilled to announce the continuation of Dr. Angela Cánovas and Dr. Nuria Prieto-Benavides' esteemed leadership within our society. Dr. Cánovas will serve as the Eastern Director, while Dr. Prieto-Benavides will take on the role of Western Director. Their remarkable dedication and expertise have significantly contributed to our society's growth, and I have full confidence in their continued guidance propelling us toward new achievements in animal science.

Furthermore, I am delighted to share details about our upcoming 2024 ASAS-CSAS-WSASAS Annual Meeting. Scheduled to take place from July 21st to 25th, 2024, this prestigious event will be hosted at the Calgary TELUS Convention Centre. Calgary, nestled in the foothills of the majestic Canadian Rocky Mountains in Western Canada's province of Alberta, will serve as an ideal backdrop for this gathering of insightful discussions, knowledge sharing, and networking opportunities.

This meeting will offer a platform for our community to delve into the forefront of animal science advancements, fostering collaboration and innovation. It's an event not to be missed, providing a unique opportunity to engage with experts, exchange ideas, and explore the latest developments in our field.

I encourage all members to mark their calendars for this significant event and to stay tuned for further updates regarding the conference and other essential developments within our society. Your active participation and engagement are the cornerstone of our vibrant community.

Should you have any queries or contributions for our newsletter, please don't hesitate to contact Jennifer at jennmitchell.tfio@bellnet.ca. Your inputs are invaluable in shaping this informative publication.

Thank you for your continued support and dedication to the Canadian Society of Animal Science.

Warm regards,

Younes Miar
