Other US societies of interest:

The American Meat Science Association (AMSA) is a broad-reaching organization of individuals that develops and disseminates its collective food and animal science knowledge to provide meat science education and professional development. AMSA connects over 800 of the world's top meat, animal, and food scientists. AMSA members form relationships that cross geographical, cultural, and institutional boundaries. The result is a network of collaboration and technical expertise that enhances careers and lets AMSA members get their jobs done more effectively.

Join AMSA (2010): professional membership = US$160 or ¥1100 (RMB)

All costs in RMB (Chinese Yuan, ¥) are approximate based on daily exchange rate

Note: Registration forms with enclosed payments must be received by 5:00 pm (central daylight time) on October 1, 2009, to be eligible for discounted early registration rates. Forms and/or payments received after October 1, 2009, will be subject to the onsite registration rate.
