

Accreditation Fees

February 2026

Fees

Fees charged for the Accreditation of Animal Science programs are structured to cover the costs of accreditation. ASAS is committed to providing support staff and overhead annually in support of the ASCoA function. An annual budget for the ASCoA will be approved by the ASAS Board of Directors. Annual and application fees of program participants will be reviewed and re-evaluated periodically. Changes to the fee structure will be approved by the ASAS Board of Directors and announced 12 months before implementation. All fees are due and payable when invoiced or application submitted.
