

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF ANIMAL SCIENCE

Distinguished Industry Impact Award

Name of Award: The American Society of Animal Science Animal Distinguished Industry Impact Award.

Nature of Award: Waiver of ASAS Annual Meeting registration fees and a plaque.

Purpose: Recognizes a mid-career industry professional whose sustained accomplishments have significantly advanced the animal health, production or meat industries through innovation, leadership, education, outreach or service.

Eligibility for Nomination:

- Approximately 10–25 years of professional experience following their highest degree or career entry.
- Current ASAS member.
- Award winner is expected to make a formal presentation at the ASAS Annual Meeting.

Dossier must include the following materials:

- CV/Biography of the nominee.
- Summary statement (not to exceed 8000 characters and spaces) describing the impact and importance of the nominee's contributions to technology development for the livestock industry.
- Statements of support (min 3, max 6) from employers, peers, university partners, and the animal industry and other evidence of nominee's contributions (e.g., patents, scientific publications) collated into a single document.
- Citation for printing and reading (not to exceed 1000 characters and spaces).
- Photo of nominee (photo will only be used in the awards program and will not be visible to the award review committee).