

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF ANIMAL SCIENCE

Emerging Industry Impact Award

Name of Award: The American Society of Animal Science Emerging Industry Impact Award.

Nature of Award: Waiver of ASAS Annual Meeting registration fees and a plaque.

Purpose: Recognizes an early-career industry professional who has demonstrated exceptional promise and measurable impact on the animal health, production or meat industries.

Eligibility for Nomination:

- Within 10 years of completing their highest degree or within 10 years of beginning their professional career in industry or government.
- Current ASAS member.
- Award winner is expected to make a formal presentation at the ASAS Annual Meeting.

Dossier must include the following materials:

- CV/Biography of the nominee.
- Summary statement (not to exceed 8000 characters and spaces) describing the impact and importance of the nominee's contributions to technology development for the livestock industry.
- Statements of support (min 3, max 6) from employers, peers, university partners, and the animal industry and other evidence of nominee's contributions (e.g., patents, scientific publications) collated into a single document.
- Citation for printing and reading (not to exceed 1000 characters and spaces).
- Photo of nominee (photo will only be used in the awards program and will not be visible to the award review committee).