

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT POSTER PAPER COMPETITION
MIDWEST SECTION, AMERICAN SOCIETY OF ANIMAL SCIENCE
MIDWEST BRANCH, AMERICAN DAIRY
SCIENCE ASSOCIATION®
September 2007, August 2009, and August 2019

Purpose

The purpose of the Undergraduate Student Poster Paper Competitions is to provide an opportunity for undergraduate students to gain experience in reviewing, discovering, and presenting scientific information in a scholarly manner on a topic of current importance and interest to the animal industry.

Rules and Regulations

1. Contestants must be enrolled as an undergraduate student in an institution within the ASAS Midwest Section or ADSA Midwest Branch® which offers a baccalaureate degree in Agriculture at the time of abstract submission. The contestant or the advisor must be a member of either ASAS or ADSA®. Undergraduate students enrolled in institutions outside of the Midwest region or at institutions that do not offer degrees in Agriculture may also enter the competition as long as either the student or the advisor is a member of the ASAS Midwest

Section or the ADSA® Midwest Branch.

2. There is no limit as to the number of students that can participate from one college/university.
3. An individual student may enter only one competitive paper in either the oral or poster division. Additional papers may be submitted for non-competitive presentation in appropriate disciplinary sections.
4. The Undergraduate Student Poster Paper Competition is designed as an individual competition. Therefore, only one student may present a single poster entry.
5. The project supervisor's name should be included as an author on the paper.

 There is no limit on the number of undergraduates from one institution presenting undergraduate research papers. However, an individual student is limited to entering only one competitive paper in either the oral or poster competition.

Subject Matter

The paper must include original research in which the student was involved at a level appropriate for an undergraduate student.

Location and Setting

1. Posters will be presented at the Midwest ASAS/ADSA® Annual Meeting in an Undergraduate Poster Competition Session.

Awards

1. Cash awards will be presented to the three entrants receiving the highest point totals (first, $300; second, $200; and third, $100).

2. Winners will be announced, and cash awards presented at the Midwest ASAS/ADSA Annual Awards and Business Meeting.

3. Students are required to attend the Awards Ceremony.
