

American Society of Animal Science

SOUTHERN SECTION

2019 ASAS Southern Section Meeting
January 26-29, 2019 • Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

Confirmed Symposia and Student Lunch/Learn Speakers

SERA41: Improving Sustainability of Beef Cattle Production Systems in the Southeast –
Sunday, January 27, 2019

- Stacey Gunter, USDA ARS - Thoughts on the energetic efficiency of grazing cattle
- James Neel, USDA ARS - Improved Grazing System Productivity, Efficiency and Sustainability Through Novel Approaches
- Matt Poore, North Carolina State University - Nutrient distribution and soil health

Southeast ARPAS Chapter Symposium: Lifetime Costs of Mismanaging Calves Pre-weaning – Sunday, January 27, 2019

- David Smith, Mississippi State University – Pre-weaning causes of morbidity and mortality
- John Riley, Oklahoma State University – Pre-finishing economic consequences of mismanagement
- Daniel Thomson, Kansas State University – Carry-over effects of health management through the production chain

Kunkle Symposium: Movement of Stocker Cattle from the Southeast to the Southern Great Plains – Health and Management Implications – Monday, January 28, 2019

- Jeff Carroll, USDA-ARS - 30 Year Historical View of Stocker Health and Performance of SE Origin Cattle
- Dee Griffin, West TX A&M - Shipping Calves to the Southern Great Plains: Impact of Mode, Timing, Distance, and Cattle Type
- John Richeson, West TX A&M - Managing Health during the Receiving/Post Shipping Period
- Paul Beck, Oklahoma State University - Stocker Management and Impacts on Subsequent Health and Feedlot Performance

Student Lunch and Learn: Transitioning from Student to Professional in the Academic and Professional World – Tuesday, January 28, 2019.

- Todd Bilby, Merck Animal Health
- Speaker 2: TBD