THREE-MINUTE VIDEO COMPETITION SCORE SHEET

Presenter: _________________________________

Presentation was disqualified - exceeded three minutes....................................................... ____

1. Delivery....................................................................................................................(5 points) ______
   1.1. Well organized and easy to follow.
   1.2. Distinct voice.
   1.3. Good eye contact with audience.
   1.4. Maximized content without being verbose.

2. Communication..................................................................................(15 points) ______
   2.1. Explained technical material in an understandable and concise manner.
   2.2. Premise of their research was clearly explained.
   2.3. The topic and its significance were appropriately communicated.
   2.4. Avoided use of technical jargon.
   2.5. Portrayed animal industry in a positive light.

3. Presentation.............................................................................................(10 points) ______
   3.1. Video captured the audience’s attention.
   3.2. Information was presented in a creative, unique way.
   3.3. Adequate depth of information was presented.

4. Knowledge of the subject........................................................................(5 points) ______
   4.1. Video indicated appropriate knowledge of the subject presented.

5. Production..................................................................................................(5 points) ______
   5.1. Audio, visual, and editing quality were adequate.